WITH FIVE ELEGANT STEEL ENGRAVINGS, viz:
The Marriage of Washington,
Goddess of Liberty,
Portrait of Washington,
Portrait of Daniel Webster,
Portrait of George Washington,
Portrait of Martha Washington,
Together with—
"Washington's Farewell Address,"
"Constitution of the United States," and the "Declaration of Independence."
The following are a few of the strong commendations of the press:
"This setting up of this volume was a happy thought. It awakens and invigorates the noblest patriotic sentiments, and, withal, fortifies patriotism by Bible religion. The volume opens with 'Washington's Farewell Address,' among the richest legacies ever bestowed by a patriot upon his country, and then follows, in prose and poetry, the happiest and most soul-stirring appeals to the reason and hearts of Americans, warning them of the danger of foreign influence to their free institutions, and exhorting to sleepless vigilance in their perpetuation."
"The book gives a clear exhibition of what the 'Know-Notthings' are, shows the necessity of such an association, and excites an earnest hope that they may be preserved and prospered as the life-giving of civil and religious liberty."
"This is a sterling annual, full of living truth, which must be commended by every reader who is patriotic and responsive to the noblest of all government. He will also attend to the unfinished agency business of Vespucci Ellis, Esq."
Every page in it is of sterling value, and should be committed to memory, and handed down from father to child. The making of such a book is our best adornment. Washington and all the worthies following after him speak in the living present, and poets of the soul set to glowing measure the glories of 'Providence's bright gift.'—Along Spectator.
The whole making one elegant 12mo. volume.
Price $1. The same in full gilt, sides and edges, $1.50.
For sale by booksellers generally.

ONE CURE FOR ONE DISEASE.

DESHLER'S Anti-Periodic or Fever and
Ague Pills, are a certain cure for all that class of malarious and periodic complaints known as chills and fever, fever and ague, dumb ague, irregularity in women, &c., &c., without the aid of those noxious drugs usually relied upon, viz: calomel, arsenic, or quinine.
After many years' patient experiment and research as a Pharmacist, the undersigned candidly believes that he has perfected a remedy for the above and kindred complaints, which will, with least injury, drive out of every hundred. He feels, very sensibly, that this sounds boastful and chimerical, but he has now used it, under his own observation, upon more than one thousand severe cases without one failure. Before asking the confidence of the public, he has obtained joint certificate from the Hon. William A. Newell, M. D., late member of Congress from New Jersey, and A. D. Newell, M. D., an eminently successful surgeon and physician, of New Brunswick, N. J.
To Physicians and the Public.
"Having extensively used 'Deshler's Anti-Periodic or Fever and Ague Pills,' in our practice, we take pleasure in stating publicly our experience of their efficacy. We have used them in hundreds of cases of fever and ague, and have never known a person to have a second chill after administering them; and as they contain no salt of arsenic or quinine, the former of which sometimes operates so deleteriously as an accumulative poison, we consider them a valuable and valuable remedy, and we are prepared to give our family that is liable to chills and fever. To our professional brethren we deem it proper to say, that we have been made acquainted with the composition of these pills, and find them strictly a simple preparation. Moreover, they are prepared by an apothecary of more than twenty years' active experience, we can vouch that they are skillfully compounded. 'We earnestly commend them to the notice of the profession, and believe they will cure all usual remedies have failed.'

In their own State both these gentlemen have an extensive practice, and enjoy, to an enviable degree, the confidence of the public. There they would obtain universal credit. But as we desire to prepossess every citizen of the United States with our truthful and good faith, we submit the following note from a gentleman known and revered throughout the Union—the Hon. Theodore Frelinghuysen, LL. D.
Note from the Hon. Theodore Frelinghuysen.
"From the professional character and reputation of Drs. Newell, above named, and the esteem in which these gentlemen, with Mr. Deshler, are held in this State, I take pleasure in stating that any representations made by them are worthy of public confidence."
THEO. FRELINGHUYSEN.

New Brunswick, N. J., Jan. 24, 1855.
Owing to the floods of quick medicines with which the country has been deluged, and which have proved so uniformly worthless, the discoverer of this remedy has long hesitated to come before the public. Having seen, however, that the public mind was being misled by the pretensions of others, and that the cure of all complaints with one remedy, miserably failed to cure any, and he has feared that the public which has been so often deceived, would be misled by him, he has decided to come forward, and to call attention to his remedy. He relies, however, on the above certificates giving him a title to its confidence and attention while making the following statement:
We claim for our remedy the following peculiarities and advantages which it is distinguished from others.
1st. They exert a marked, specific, and almost instantaneous anti-periodic power, by which they neutralize the malarious influence, and drive it out of the system, and thus prevent a relapse. The law by which the remedy acts overpowers the law of the disease.
2d. While they thus manifest great activity and power, they are yet perfectly harmless. A well person (even if an infant) may take great quantities not without inconvenience, but without seeming effect of any kind.
3d. They never disagree with the weakest stomach, almost instantly restore appetite, and break up that distressing sense of bodily prostration which always accompanies this disease.
4th. They may be taken without regard to age, sex, diet, or drink, and as a journey as easily as a walk.
5th. They are not only anti-periodic, but anti-bilious also.
6th. They contain no salt of mercury, arsenic, or quinine.
